Dear Valued Shareholders, Customers, and Team Members-

As we reflect on 2023, I am pleased to provide an overview of our community bank's performance and the larger economic landscape. Challenging environments are not new to River City Bank. We have a strong track record of bringing together the expertise and determination needed to find the right path forward, to deliver focused execution of strategic priorities with a disciplined approach while simultaneously navigating unforeseen circumstances. Our team adapted quickly to last year's operating environment, upholding our commitment to our customers by offering proactive advice, customized solutions, and unrelenting support all while delivering results our shareholders expect. We started the year with refreshed optimism as we continued to execute on our proven strategy of growing our loan portfolio and deposit franchise, focusing on diversification, increasing non-interest fee revenue, enhancing our technology, and building scale within the Company. The results produced in 2023 occurred by concentrating on what we do best: strengthening and expanding customer relationships. our customer-centric community-focused core-relationship banking model has been our legacy for almost two decades and it continues to be a winning strategy today.

In 2023, the U.S. economy defied expectations, displaying robust growth and resiliency regardless of the initial predictions of a near-term recession. Despite the positive indicators of real economic arowth and unemployment rate throughout the year, 2023 was marked by significant events that impacted the global economy. During the year there were a series of bank failures that sent shockwaves through the financial sector creating significant volatility in our industry. Those failures, combined with persistent inflation, consumer concerns regarding deposit insurance, a worsening geo-political environment, and interest rates, caused our Company's momentum and growth to slow in the first half of the year. The bank failures specifically created significant disruption leading to a hyper competitive environment for liquidity gathering and retention in the first half of 2023. These bank failures also 5 2023 ANNUAL REPORT highlighted the importance of risk management for banks of all sizes and amplified the sensitivity to liquidity and our need to be proactive in addressing concerns of our customers. Swift action by our leadership team and customer-facing employees to embrace these industry concerns while creating solutions that provided customers restored confidence was paramount. Our dynamic team of bankers met these challenges head-on with agility and responsiveness allowing us to retain existing customers while recruiting and earning new relationships that built additional market share for our Company.

One of our primary strategic initiatives last year was to increase our workforce in specific areas of the Company to support our existing and future growth while remaining disciplined and opportunistic on hiring high performance producers in our markets. In the first quarter of 2023, we hired key personnel to scale our information technology, operations, and marketing departments. Additionally, we wanted to diversify our mix of business loans to deliver long-term sustainable growth that would enhance interest income and non-interest fee revenue.

In the first quarter of 2023 we hired Reece Sanford, Senior Vice President and Director of Government Guaranteed Lending.

Reece Sanford
Senior Vice President
Director of Government
Guaranteed Lending

Reece's specialized skills and expertise allowed us to fulfill a strategic priority by starting our Small Business Administration (SBA) division. SBA loans are, in-part, guaranteed by the federal government and allow us to provide business loans with more favorable terms or more flexible underwriting than conventional loans. With the strength of the SBA behind us, we can now lend to companies we might not have been able to work with in the past. This is a meaningful financial solution for some small businesses, and we anticipate this line of business will contribute materially to our revenue in the future.

In the second quarter we added an additional financial advisor to our wealth management team, increasing our depth of personnel and building on the future of our wealth management team.

And lastly in the fourth quarter of 2023 we took advantage of a market disruption, the sale of another community bank in the northwest Georgia region, hiring Matt Robbins as our Company's Executive Vice-President and Chief Banking Officer.

Matt Robbins
Executive Vice President
Chief Banking Officer

Matt is responsible for overseeing and directing strategic initiatives focused on and loan deposit arowth. revenue enhancement and sales, fintech solutions, and enterprise-risk management. addition to hiring Matt, we hired three experienced bankers with a combined 90 years of banking experience. This team of bankers are passionate about community banking, possess an extensive network and customer base, and are deeply rooted in the communities they serve.

We believe our team members are the driving force behind our success and they represent our most valuable assets. While we recognize the investments made into human capital are expensive, we strongly believe the decisions were necessary to create a Company that now has the scale and infrastructure to support a much larger financial institution.

2023 FINANCIAL PERFORMANCE HIGHLIGHTS

As a result of our team's dedication and focus, we closed out 2023 with a robust core deposit franchise, a healthy loan pipeline, excellent credit quality, and a strong capital position. The collective impact of our short and long-term actions resulted in another solid year of performance for our Company, reflecting the progress we continue to make building a fortified balance sheet and a foundation for the future for RCB Financial Corporation and River City Bank. As of December 31, 2023, Return on Assets totaled 0.72 percent and our Return on Equity totaled 11.1 percent, culminating in a dividend that increased 43 year-over-year.

BALANCE SHEET

One of the many ways we measure success is through financial performance and managing the balance sheet in a way that provides stability to our shareholders, even at a time when the overall economic environment is unstable. 2023 was another strong year of growth and balance sheet management as the bank reported a solid increase in deposits and loans while maintaining outstanding credit quality and a strong liquidity position. As of December 31, 2023, we reported total assets of $280 million compared to $263 million at December 31, 2022, an increase of $17 million or 7 percent. Total deposits were $251 million, up $15 million year-over-year on targeted efforts by our relationship managers, identifying and bringing new clients to River City Bank. We experienced deposit growth in all categories last year with core deposits increasing 5 percent and time deposits increasing 17 percent. Core deposits currently represent 85 percent of total deposits, which again is a testament to our strona deposit franchise and contributes to our low cost of funding. Our ability to raise deposits in an extremely competitive environment allowed liquidity to remain stable, funding the loan pipeline that remained robust through year end. Our investments to expand into Union and Dawson Counties continue to be exciting and beneficial to our Company as well. At vear-end 2023 markets these new represented 28 percent of our consolidated balance sheet and 37 percent of our consolidated net income.

As of December 31, 2023, net loans totaled $200 million, a $20 million or 11 percent increase compared to December 31, 2022. This increase resulted from the continued focus of our relationship managers to compete for new business, broadening our diversification in loans through SBA, and the addition of new team members.

Securities totaled $42 million as of December 31, 2023, an increase of $2 million year-over-year. The increase in securities was primarily due to the purchasing of bank deposit owned certificates of short-term treasury securities at higher yields. Additionally, after careful evaluation, we chose to sell a limited number of securities that had a short earn-back period, which were offset by the reinvestment into higher yielding new securities. The combination of these exercises improved our unrealized losses associated with our available-for-sale securities portfolio.

INCOME STATEMENT

Interest income was $13 million in 2023 compared to $9.8 million in 2022. The increase in interest income was due to both the growth in loans and the rising rate environment. Interest expense was $2.6 million in 2023 compared to $839 thousand in 2022. The increase in interest expense in 2023 was due to a significant increase in the rates paid on deposits to maintain adequate liquidity given the competitive pressures in our markets. While the continued pressure of higher rates led most of the industry to struggle with a ballooning cost of funds, our team of bankers excelled. We grew core relationships and executed consistently on principled pricing strategies which allowed our net interest margin to widen while others saw compression. Our margin grew from 4.01 percent in 2022 to 4.39 percent in 2023 leading to an 18 percent increase in net interest income after provision expense year-over-year.

Non-interest income for fiscal year 2023 increased 3 percent year-over-year. Excluding a one-time gain on the sale of foreclosed property in 2022. core non-interest income increased $207 thousand or 10 percent from the prior year. Due to the higher interest rate environment which contributed to weakened demand for purchase money and home refinances, mortgage fee income was down 44 percent from 2022. Offsetting this loss of income were year-over-year increases in wealth management and interchange fee revenue of 8 percent and 38 percent, respectively, as well as SBA income totaling $226 thousand.

Non-interest expense for the twelve months ended December 31, 2023, increased by 25 percent due to strategic investments made in human capital, starting the SBA line of business, full absorption of the new branch in Union County, and investments in technology designed to protect the bank while positioning the Company for future growth. We will continue to invest in personnel, branches, and technology designed to deliver a high-quality customer experience.

Net income as of December 31, 2023, was reported at $1.9 million compared to $2.2 million for the same period in 2022. Consolidated Earnings Per Share for the twelve-month period ending December 31, 2023, was $0.90 per share compared to $1.04 per share for the same period in 2022.

BY ORDER OF THE BOARD OF DIRECTORS

Independent Auditor's Report

Board of Directors and Stockholders RCB Financial Corporation and Subsidiary Rome, Georgia

We have audited the accompanying consolidated financial statements (the "financial statements") of RCB Financial Corporation and Subsidiary (the "Company"), which comprise the consolidated balance sheets as of December 31, 2023 and 2022, and the related consolidated statements of income, comprehensive income (loss), changes in stockholders' equity, and cash flows for the years then ended, and the related notes to the financial statements.

In our opinion, the accompanying financial statements referred to above present fairly, in all material respects, the financial position of RCB Financial Corporation and Subsidiary as of December 31, 2023 and 2022, and the results of its operations and its cash flows for the years then ended in accordance with accounting principles generally accepted in the United States of America ("GAAP").

Basis for Opinion

We conducted our audits in accordance with auditing standards generally accepted in the United States of America ("GAAS"). Our responsibilities under those standards are further described in the Auditor's Responsibilities for the Audit of the Financial Statements section of our report. We are required to be independent of RCB Financial Corporation and Subsidiary and to meet our other ethical responsibilities, in accordance with the relevant ethical requirements relating to our audits. We believe that the audit evidence we have obtained is sufficient and appropriate to provide a basis for our audit opinion.

Responsibilities of Management for the Financial Statements

Management is responsible for the preparation and fair presentation of the financial statements in accordance with accounting principles generally accepted in the United States of America, and for the design, implementation, and maintenance of internal control relevant to the preparation and fair presentation of financial statements that are free from material misstatement, whether due to fraud or error.

In preparing the financial statements, management is required to evaluate whether there are conditions or events, considered in the aggregate, that raise substantial doubt about RCB Financial Corporation and Subsidiary's ability to continue as a going concern for one year after the date the financial statements are available to be issued.

Auditor's Responsibilities for the Audit of the Financial Statements

Our objectives are to obtain reasonable assurance about whether the financial statements as a whole are free from material misstatement, whether due to fraud or error, and to issue an auditor's report that includes our opinion. Reasonable assurance is a high level of assurance but is not absolute assurance and therefore is not a guarantee that an audit conducted in accordance with GAAS will always detect a material misstatement when it exists. The risk of not detecting a material misstatement resulting from fraud is higher than for one resulting from error, as fraud may involve collusion, forgery, intentional omissions, misrepresentations, or the override of internal control. Misstatements are considered material if there is a substantial likelihood that, individually or in the aggregate, they would influence the judgment made by a reasonable user based on the financial statements.

In performing an audit in accordance with GAAS, we:

- · Exercise professional judgment and maintain professional skepticism throughout the audit.
- Identify and assess the risks of material misstatement of the financial statements, whether due to fraud or error, and design and perform audit procedures responsive to those risks. Such procedures include examining, on a test basis, evidence regarding the amounts and disclosures in the financial statements.
- Obtain an understanding of internal control relevant to the audit in order to design audit procedures that are appropriate in the circumstances, but not for the purpose of expressing an opinion on the effectiveness of RCB Financial Corporation and Subsidiary's internal control. Accordingly, no such opinion is expressed.
- Evaluate the appropriateness of accounting policies used and the reasonableness of significant accounting estimates made by management, as well as evaluate the overall presentation of the financial statements.
- Conclude whether, in our judgment, there are conditions or events, considered in the aggregate, that raise substantial doubt about RCB Financial Corporation and Subsidiary's ability to continue as a going concern for a reasonable period of time.

We are required to communicate with those charged with governance regarding, among other matters, the planned scope and timing of the audit, significant audit findings, and certain internal control-related matters that we identified during the audit.
